VOL. FIVE, NO. 3

THE PROGRAM FOLIO, a service to KPFF subscribers, is published bi-weekly by KPFF (FM 90.7 mc) which serves Southern California. KPFF broadcasts 17 hours a day of music, drama, public affairs and programs for children. The station promotes discussions of all points of view, but endorses none.

Anyone can listen, but those who want creative and provocative programming support KPFF. The basic annual subscription is $12.00. Contributions are tax-deductible because KPFF is non-profit. Sustaining, $25.00; Contributing, $50.00; Patron, $100.00; Participating, $250.00; Lifetime, $1,000; Student, $5.00 (six months); Introductory, $3.00 (three months). Subscriptions are transferable to KPFA, serving Northern California (2207 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley) and WBAI, serving the New York area (30 E. 39th St., N.Y. 16).

KPFF and these two other listener-subscription stations form Pacifica, a non-profit corporation. KPFF programming has been favorably reviewed by THE SATURDAY REVIEW, THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, THE NATION, THE NEW YORKER, THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR and numerous other publications. KPFF has received broadcasting's three most outstanding awards: a PEABODY, an OHIO STATE AWARD and the AFRED I. duPONT RADIO AND TELEVISION AWARD FOR 1961.

KPFF transmits from Mt. Wilson with a power of 110,000 watts. The mailing address is KPFF, Los Angeles 38, California. Studios and offices are located at 3729 Cahuenga Blvd., North Hollywood.

TR 7-5583, ST 1-0150.

Program Talk

Two special events highlight this Folio: a live studio concert, to which you are invited, and an interview with music of the Freedom Singers. The studio concert features Donna Burrow, the comely redhead you heard at our Pleasure Faire and May Market. Saturday, August 31, beginning at 9:30 p.m., Donna will sing Irish, English, and Scots songs of all periods in our Studio D. Arrive at the station about 9:00 and welcome.

Donna's concert is part of our Echoes of the Faire series in this Folio—recapturing the best moments of the two-day extravaganza. Other Echoes, tape-recorded, can be heard Friday, August 23, Saturday, August 24, and Thursday, August 29.

The Freedom Singers are four young men and women who perform the songs of the civil rights movement to raise funds for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. They will appear at the Ash Grove in Los Angeles in August and September. On August 19, Monday, we will interview them in our studios; that interview will be rebroadcast on Sunday, August 25. AND, Ed Perl of the Ash Grove has given us 150 tickets to hear the Freedom Singers on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, August 30 and 31, and September 1. Two of these tickets will be given free with each new $12.00 subscription during this Folio period. If you are an old subscriber and want to take advantage of this offer, get a friend to subscribe, and we will give you or your friend the two tickets.

Still, yet, and another highlight: seven programs from the controversial convention of the Young Republican National Federation in San Francisco in June. Senator Barry Goldwater leads off the series Friday, August 30; the remaining six programs are on Saturday, August 31, and Sunday, September 1.

We have finally raised some money to keep a Pacifica correspondent in the South full-time this summer. Dale Minor will be sending reports and producing documentary programs in the spirit of Birmingham and Jackson masterpieces. These reports will be aired under the title From the South, an hour set aside the first Monday evening of each Folio. Additional programs on civil rights will be programmed on the Wide-Open Hour Saturdays, and The Eleventh Hour on Thursdays.

BROADCAST HOURS: 7 a.m. to 12:00 midnight, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 12:00 midnight Saturday and Sunday. Dates of future broadcasts appear in BOLD FACE, caps and parentheses. Example: (DECEMBER 30). Dates of original broadcasts in light face and in parentheses. Example: (December 30). Numbers in parentheses following listing of musical selections refer to time, in minutes.

8:30 THE ELEVENTH HOUR: No psychologists here, but open time for late program arrivals and topical fare.

9:30 CINEMA REVIEW

9:45 NOT-SO-SILENT MOVIES MUSICS: Before talkies, each movie scene had its own high-lighting music. When electrical recording came in, automation drove pianists and organists out of work. Fortunately for us, William Malloch has kept some of the circa 1926 recordings with titles like "Implorations" and "Hurry No. 3"; he gathers a nosegay of them of those who were there and those who wish they had been there when it was all like it was really happening.

10:15 BIRTHSUIT: A documentary produced by South African radio on a decompression device to ease the pressure on the uterus during delivery, thus shortening labor. Included is a recording of an actual birth.

10:45 THE WORLD IS MY COUNTRY: Anne Morrisett talks about "world citizen" Gary Davis, and belatedly reviews Davis's book.

11:00 LOTTE LEHMANN'S FAREWELL CONCERT: The great lieder singer gives a stunning concert, then really stuns her audience by telling them they have just heard her for the last time. Enterprising fans secretly recorded this Town Hall performance. (62)

FRIDAY, August 23

7:00 A.M. SCHUMANN FOR THE YOUNG:

Waldscenen, Op 82

Haskil/piano (Epic 3358) (20)

SATURDAY, August 24

9:00 A.M. VANESSA: The Pulitzer Prize-winning opera in four acts by Samuel Barber. The libretto is by Gian-Carlo Menotti and the soloists are Steber, Gedda, Elias, Tozzi and Resnik. Mitropoulos conducts the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra and Chorus. (RCA 6138) (113)

10:00 FOR YOUNG PEOPLE: See page 6.

10:30 WORKING MEN — XII: World War II and After—the New Era. John Ohliger's adaptation in song and words of Sid Lens' book on American labor.

11:00 JUSSI BJÖRLING: Opera is icumen in, so we will let Fred Hyatt spin discs from his Björling collection and tell us of the late Swedish tenor.

11:30 THE DEED: Dick Elman interviews Gerold Frank, author of a recent Simon and Schuster book on the assassination of Lord Moyne, British High Commissioner in the middle East, by two young Palestinians in 1944.

12:00 SCOPE OF JAZZ: Martin Williams and others.

12:00 THE SCOPE OF JAZZ: Martin Williams continues his series devoted to jazz of the advanced guard of the late '30's.

1:00 THE LIVELY ARTS: From Ken Eisler of San Diego State College, another look at the arts.

1:15 SLIGHTLY RADIOACTIVE AND VERY CONFUSING: Jean Thompson, a high school science teacher, gives his view of the problems of the citizen in coping with public questions where a knowledge of science is needed. As a case in point, he presents some testimony recorded when the LA Water Board asked permission of the County Planning Commission to build an atomic power station in Malibu.

2:30 FAREWELL TO THE MODEL T: Richard Strout and E. B. White's 1936 memoir, "Farewell, My Lovely," read by Onslow Stevens.

2:45 ECHOES OF THE FAIRE—II: The UCLA Collegium Musicum appeared at KPFF's recent Elizabethan romp, directed by Gilbert Reaney. Here they are in performance elsewhere, doing it up on an amazing variety of instruments.

4:00 THE GREATEST ADVENTURE: Mitchell Harding with thought and information on the problems of a technological age.

4:30 GOLDEN VOICES: Anthony Boucher presents the graceful and underrated French baritone Andre Bauge (1893- ) in excerpts from operas by Gounod, Massenet and Rossini and lighter works by Adam, Audran and Lecocq, plus a remarkable performance of Gounod's Serenade.

5:00 WIDE-OPEN HOUR: Open time for interesting programs arriving too late for Folio scheduling.
